

Employee ID Card Request Management System

Project Documentation

Project Title

Employee ID Card Request Management System

Objective

The objective of the Employee ID Card Request Management System is to automate the process of requesting, approving, and managing employee ID cards within an organization. The application allows employees to submit ID card requests, enables managers to approve or reject requests, sends automated email notifications, provides request tracking, and supports administrative processing of approved requests.